

There Are No “Statute of Limitations” On FRAUD!

Part 6

You may never have heard of the term “GESARA” (Global Economic Security and Reformation Act) before, however, don’t feel like you’ve been left out of the loop. Virtually almost all people living in the United States of America have never heard of it either.

“GESARA” was a “US Citizen Freedom from Debt” ruling by the US Supreme Court resulting from a Farmers Lawsuit that muddled through the courts during the 1980s. The case proved that since the 1600s, US Taxpayer dollars had been illegally laundered through what is known by 1871 through the 1900’s as the Rothschild’s privately owned IRS, Federal Reserve and Cabal corporations of the District of Columbia, City of London and the Holy See (aka U.S. Inc., Queen Elizabeth and the Vatican) who then controlled use of the monies through Central Banks across the globe – with the political elites filling their pockets along the way.

President Clinton had signed off on “GESARA”, even though neither he, nor any U.S. President since, had implemented the law – until Donald Trump was elected the 45th President of the U.S.A. No President since George H.W. Bush planned to upset their access to the slush funds provided by the Cabal that was made up by the Crown/Jesuit-Vatican/House of Rothschild.

A plan by what was known as the “Alliance” had been in motion since “GESARA” was signed into law, though not implemented. The Plan involved revaluing the U.S. fiat dollar into a gold/asset-backed U.S. Note, thereby restoring the original U.S. Constitution and working with 209 nations to revalue their currencies through what has been termed as a “Global Currency Reset” – that was now within days of announcement at the 2019 World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland June 22-25.

To accomplish the “GCR” it took the brave and complex work of several nations (including China and the BRICS Alliance and their legal entities) with a goal of nationalizing the Central Banks by taking down the criminal Cabal’s (U.S. Inc., Federal Reserve and IRS) plus filing, serving and litigating over 71,000 indictments, most filed within the last year, against the global elites in federal, military and international courts.

The Cabal was a global criminal operation composed of private parties that has controlled the global monetary system since its inception in 1693. By the 1800’s a Satan worshipping Vatican and the Queen’s Bank of London were using their privately owned U.S. Inc.’s Federal Reserve and IRS to funnel U.S. Taxpayer dollars through their Central Banks, thus controlling the global monetary system, as well as filling their own pockets and those of politicians they wished to influence along the way. I repeat, the Federal Reserve Bank, is neither “Federal”, nor a “Reserve,” or a “Bank.” It is an unconstitutional criminal cabal. 99.99% of the American public does not know this or just how they have been deceived and robbed.

Their Vatican controlled Satanic Ninth Circle Child Sacrifice Cult supported this criminal enterprise by holding regular Child Sacrifice rites across the globe to supposedly obtain the “power” to control and run all these criminal activities. The Vatican, U.S. Inc., Queen Elizabeth and their Central Bankers were said to utilize the resources of various mafias to obtain additional funding through child pedophilia and exploitation, drug and gun running rings, plus payoffs, blackmail, voter fraud and extortion to secure control over the geopolitical world. <http://beforeitsnews.com/contributor/pages/243/590/stories.html>

Below the “Monopoly” game box cover is the logo for “GESARA” and its acronym meaning: “Global Economic Security and Reformation Act.” At this point in the transition, 209 sovereign nations of the world have signed on to what is essentially the “Biggest News Story of 2019,” and perhaps the century as well. One of the reasons you have not heard, read, or known anything about it is related to the fact that the world’s elite globalists do not want to surrendered to the new business model for the world’s economic states. The House of Rothschild sits at the pinnacle of global economic and financial power, and they are not simply going to roll over and surrender the goose that has laid the golden eggs for over 400 years. Ask yourself, would you want to surrender a good deal if it was your private business model functioning as a Monopoly? The very household game of “Monopoly” is based upon the Rothschild business model. The illustration on the game box cover is none other than J.P. Morgan, a Rothschild agent.

We've arrived at a new day on planet earth. Welcome home. The big day came and went and you were unaware of its meaning and how it will impact your life. This is not to say there are those folks who want to obstruct every aspect of what "GESARA" represents. They are very active on both the national and global front.

Many today in the Republic of the United States are asking what the heck is really going on with our presidential elections, markets, military, foreign policy, budget, tax codes and social welfare programs.

Few know that "GESARA" (Global Economic Security and Reformation Act) has been recently implemented by all 209 sovereign nations of the world, and is the most ground breaking reformation act to sweep not only this country, but the entire planet across the turbulent and brief history of mankind.

This single act does away with cancers like the Federal Reserve Bank, IRS and USA, Inc. shadow government, plus so much more.

As of Friday, November 4, 2016, when it was publicly announced at the United Nations in New York City, "GESARA" will immediately [supposed to be but still on hold] implementing the following changes:

1. Cancels all credit cards, mortgages, and other bank debts due to illegal banking and government activities. Many refer to this as a "jubilee" or complete forgiveness of all debt.
2. Abolishes the income tax.
3. Abolishes the IRS, with employees of the IRS will be transferred into the US Treasury national sales tax area.
4. Creates a 17% flat-rate non-essential new items only sales tax revenue for the government. In other words, food and medicine will not be taxed; nor will use items such as old homes.
5. Increases benefits to senior citizens.
6. Returns Constitutional Law to all courts and legal matters.
7. Reinstates the original Title of Nobility amendment.

8. Establishes new Presidential and Congressional elections within 120 days of GESARA's announcement. The interim government will cancel all National Emergencies and return us back to constitutional law.
9. Monitors elections and prevents illegal election activities of special interest groups.
10. Creates a new U.S. Treasury rainbow currency backed by gold, silver, and platinum precious metals, ending the bankruptcy of the United States initiated by Franklin Roosevelt in 1933.
11. Forbids the sale of American birth certificate records as chattel property bonds by the US Department of Commerce.
12. Initiates new U.S. Treasury Bank System in alignment with Constitutional Law.
13. Eliminates the Federal Reserve System. During the transition period the Federal Reserve will be allowed to operate side by side of the U.S. treasury for one year in order to remove all Federal Reserve notes from circulation of the money supply.
14. Restores financial privacy.
15. Retrains all judges and attorneys in Constitutional Law.
16. Ceases all aggressive, U.S. government military actions worldwide.
17. Establishes peace throughout the world.
18. Releases unprecedented prosperity with enormous sums of money for humanitarian purposes.
19. Enables the release of over 6,000 patents of suppressed technologies that are being withheld from the public under the guise of national security, including free energy devices, anti-gravity, and sonic healing machines.
20. Eliminates all current and future nuclear powered weaponry on planet earth.

This is why I refer to this series as the “Biggest News Story of 2019,” and perhaps the Century. Truly, “There Are No Statute of Limitations on FRAUD!” The question that people will ask next is, when do I see the fruits of this in my pocket book? I wish the process was that simple. We are seeing how the democrats are stonewalling President Trump’s efforts to build a wall on our Southern borders. They themselves (Pelosi and Schumer) actually voted years ago to do exactly what President Trump is attempting to do through regular legislative channels. He has the power to issue an executive order or presidential directive to build a wall should he so choose to do so. He is working hard to bring this about through the regular process of legislation. The underlying term: “Legally and Constitutionally” best describes what the military flag officers have set out to do when they selected (i.e. “recruited”) Donald J. Trump to lead this “Reset” or return the United States back to Constitutional Rule of the land!

President Trump appeared to be preparing to declare a National Emergency in order to announce the NESARA Law, later known as GESARA – a freedom from debt order passed by the Supreme Court and signed by the then President Clinton that has never been implemented. Evidently Militia in all 50 states has been put on alert as of Jan. 23, 2019.

GESARA proved that the US monetary system was completely under control of bankers and certain global elites including US Presidents as far back as the 1800's. They stole all US Taxpayer monies and funneled them through their privately owned Federal Reserve, the IRS, and the Queens Bank of England, the Vatican Bank and all Central Banks across the globe. US government employees were only paid after the government borrowed on their own monies – and this is the main reason for the national debt.

“There Are No Statute of Limitations on FRAUD!” is the central point of this series and the implications of its title. I've been writing on this subject since 1998 and how it has been used to keep people in the dark. What might seem to be a dream, is in fact true, and is coming to past in such a profound way that it is actually resulting in the prosecution, trials, and finally putting corrupt politicians behind bars. It will be worse for those having committed Treason, which comes with a death penalty.

The Democrats are pulling out all the stops to bring an end to the Presidency of Donald J. Trump, using a multi-pronged approach by using mainstream media to spread propaganda, lying politicians, producing fake news sources and so-called Dossiers amounting to nothing or containing zero evidence of guilt. For example, NBC owns Buzz Feed, which was secretly founded in 2006. NBC plants fake or false reports and stories on Buzz Feed; once Buzz Feed publishes these fake stories, then NBC will then quote the Buzz Feed stories that actually originated with NBC.

One of the reasons that President Trump wanted to implement GESARA through the regular legislative process was to ensure that the Constitutional process still worked, as it was created in 1787. The Constitution was penned, edited, redrafted, and ratified on September 17th, 1787. He wanted to make a point. What only a small minority seem to recognize is that efforts have been underway for a long time to destroy our form of government; we are a Republic - not a Democracy as Communists, Marxists, and Socialists. Those with these political leanings want to undermine, destroy, and lead us into a Global “One World” System. Under a pure democracy, the rule is majority rule. That simply means 51% is a simple majority, but it does not protect the minority of 49%. The form of government that is established as a Republic protects the rights of all its citizens, including the minority segment so their rights are not disregarded.

Most of the Democrats and some of the RINO's (Republican in Name Only) are doing their best to sabotage the Constitution and the American way of life. The democrats today are not the same Democratic Party as those of John F. Kennedy's day. Since 1964, our country has been taken over by openly avowed socialists, Marxists, communists. These are people who are bent on destroying America from within. President Abraham Lincoln once said, that if the country was conquered or taken over, it would not come from a foreign country, but from within by those who hated this country. We are witnessing just such an attack today by the Clinton's and Obama and their "16-year plan."

Socialism's popularity is reviving too in America. Most of the "Millennials" have been deluded into believing Socialism is some sort of panacea, but it is nothing more than stealing from one group and redistributing the income to another group while the government takes a generous cut in the entire process. I am sharing an excellent report below by James Bovard. Note his comments about a few of the new mid-term elections winners.

Socialist Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez captured a seat in the new Congress and is calling for confiscatory tax rates at the same time Democratic Socialist candidates are thriving in many areas of the nation. The 'Washington Post' reported in July that it's "been a good summer for the Democratic Socialists of America," who have "never had more adherents or more clout." The Democratic Socialists of America openly calls for the abolition of capitalism.

It would be so gratifying to Karl Marx who was born 200 years ago in Trier, Germany. In a 'New York Times' tribute headlined, "Happy Birthday, Karl Marx. You Were Right!" philosophy professor Jason Barker declared that "educated liberal opinion is today more or less unanimous in its agreement with Marx's basic thesis" that capitalism is fatally flawed. But that presumption is true only if "educated liberal opinion" simply does not care about tyranny.

Trier, Germany, held a huge birthday celebration highlighted by the unveiling of a 5,000-pound bronze statue of Marx donated by the communist Chinese government. Jean-Claude Juncker, the president of the European Commission, gave a speech lauding the communist theoretician, declaring that:

"Karl Marx was a philosopher, who thought into the future, had creative aspirations, and today he stands for things which he is not responsible for and which he didn't cause.... One has to understand Karl Marx from the context of his time and not have prejudices...."

Juncker hyped Marx's doctrines claiming that European governments need to give more handouts to fulfill citizens' "social rights." Daniel Kawczynski, a British member of parliament whose family had fled communist Poland, denounced the celebration: "I think it's in very poor taste. We have to remember that Marxism was all about ripping power and individual means away from people and giving to the State. Marxism ... allowed a small band of fanatics to suppress the people."

Unfortunately, as decades have passed since the fall of the Soviet Union, romanticism is deep-sixing the bitter facts of the lives people in communist regimes were forced to live. British Guardian columnist Paul Mason hailed the Soviet takeover of Russia for providing “a beacon to the rest of humanity.” But Marxism in practice didn’t work out so well. Communist regimes produced the greatest ideological carnage in human history, killing more than a hundred million people in the last century. Many zealots believe that it is unfair to the legacy of Marx to hold him culpable for the perennial savagery by regimes that invoked his name. But the truth is, the seeds of tyranny were already there from the start.

The “Divine Idea”

The salvation scheme Marx planned was built on a mystical foundation supplied by the German philosopher Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel. Though the New York Times eulogy for Marx touted Hegel as an advocate for a “rational liberal state,” Hegel was derided in his lifetime as the “Royal Prussian Court Philosopher” and for promoting the notion that the State is “inherently rational.” Hegel deified government, asserting that “the State is the Divine Idea as it exists on earth” and “all the worth which the human being possesses — all spiritual reality, he possesses only through the State.” Hegel scorned any limits on government power: “The State is the self-certain absolute mind which recognizes no authority but its own, which acknowledges no abstract rules of good and bad, shameful and mean, cunning and deceit.” Hegel is most known for his “Hegelian Dialectic” [“problem-reaction-solution” or to put it another way “thesis-antithesis-synthesis”]

Perhaps blinded by Hegel, Marx never recognized the inherent danger of Leviathan. Nor did Marx explain how Communism would actually arise after the demolition of capitalism. Equally important, he never even attempted to reveal how the State would “wither away” after the “dictatorship of the proletariat” commenced. Marx’s humanitarian rubbish did nothing to deter Lenin from decreeing that “liberty is so precious that it must be rationed.”

Marxists assumed that vastly increasing government power was the key to liberating humanity. But all-powerful regimes quickly become ends in themselves. In 1932, Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin decreed the death penalty for any theft of state property. In the Ukraine, where millions were starving because of the brutal collectivization of farms, even children poaching a few ears of corn could be shot.

The history of Communism proves there will never be a shortage of intellectual apologists to sanctify any and every atrocity. In 1936, two prominent British socialists by the name of Sidney and Beatrice Webb, justified Soviet repression because “any public expression of doubt ... is an act of disloyalty and even treachery” to central economic planning. Thus, to liberate people with food and clothing, government was entitled to execute anyone who criticized the Five Year Plan for agriculture and textiles. The Webb’s glorified the Soviet ethical doctrines: “Paramount is the injunction to abstain from and to resist ‘exploitation,’ meaning any employment of others at wages for the purpose of making a profit out of their labor.” The Webb’s observed that “abstention from exploitation is the ethical duty that is ... most forcibly and frequently impressed on the youthful mind." They presumed that all private contracts are exploitative and that politicians would never abuse their power by exploiting those under their thumb.

Economist, John Maynard Keynes hailed the Soviet Union in 1936 as "engaged in a vast administrative task of making a completely new set of social and economic institutions work smoothly and successfully." American churchman, Sherwood Eddy wrote in 1934, "All life [in Russia] is ... directed to a single high end and energized by such powerful and glowing motivation.... It releases a flood of joyous and strenuous activity." American philosopher John Dewey visited the Soviet Union and proclaimed upon his return, "The people go about as if some mighty, oppressive load had been removed, as if they were newly awakened to the consciousness of released energies." France's most respected postwar philosopher, Jean-Paul Sartre declared, "Soviet citizens criticize their government much more and more effectively than we do. There is total freedom of criticism in the USSR." After controversy erupted in France in 1997 over a book that claims Communist regimes had killed nearly 100 million of their own citizens, a French Communist Party spokesman sought to differentiate Stalin and other communist leaders from Hitler: "Agreed, both Nazis and Communists killed. But while the Nazis killed from hatred of humanity, the Communists killed from love."

While many Western intellectuals painted the Soviet Union as a utopia, some Communists had fewer illusions. In 1928 Grigori Pyatakov, one of six Soviet leaders personally named in Lenin's last testament, proudly declared, "According to Lenin the Communist Party is based on the principle of coercion which doesn't recognize any limitations or inhibitions. And the central idea of this principle of boundless coercion is not coercion by itself but the absence of any limitation whatsoever — moral, political, and even physical. Such a Party is capable of achieving miracles." Pyatakov was one of the stars of the 1937 Moscow show trials, confessing to ludicrous charges of sabotaging mines in Siberia, and was executed shortly thereafter.

Boundless Tyranny

Marx's hostility to private property guaranteed boundless tyranny. Property rights are the border guards around an individual's life that deter political invasions. Socialist regimes despise property because it limits the power of the State to regiment the lives of the people. A 1975 study, The Soviet Image of Utopia, observed, "The closely knit communities of Communism will be able to locate the anti-social individual without difficulty because he will not be able to 'shut the door of his apartment' and retreat to an area of his life that is 'strictly private.'" Hungarian economist János Kornai observed, "The further elimination of private ownership is taken, the more consistently can full subjection be imposed."

Marxist regimes felt entitled to inflict unlimited delusions on their victims — for the good of the people, or at least proletariats. East Germans were told the Berlin Wall existed to keep fascists out — even though all the killings by border guards involved East Germans who were heading west. Marxism promised a utopia, and that unsecured pledge sufficed to treat subjects like serfs bound to endlessly submit and obey. Anyone who tried to escape was treated as if he were stealing government property.

Communism is still often portrayed as morally superior to capitalism because it banishes greedy corporations that poison people for profit. According to Marxist theory, environmental problems cannot arise in socialist countries because man and nature are by definition in harmony. But Eastern Bloc regimes became a vast graveyard for Mother Nature. Pollution was pervasive largely because of the deification of economic plans. As long as the factories roared and industrial output rose, it didn't matter that people and everything else were dying.

I [John Bovard] traveled behind the Iron Curtain many times in the mid to late 1980's to study the results of Marx's philosophy first-hand. I saw pervasive fear in the faces of emaciated people on the streets of Bucharest, Romania, and I saw the terror in the eyes of young Czechs when anyone touched on the subject of politics. I encountered border guards who flew into a tizzy at any piece of paper that might contain subversive ideas. And I witnessed legions of Western apologists who always insisted on giving Communist regimes more time and more Western handouts to redeem themselves.

Marx continues to appeal to social justice warriors, thanks to axioms such as "from each according to his ability, to each according to his need." And who determines "need"? The presumably omniscient, benevolent State does. Marxism promised to end the "class struggle," but it did so by subjugating almost everyone to officialdom. As Yugoslavian dissident Milovan Djilas observed in 1957, Communism begot a new class of supreme bureaucrats with their own vested interest to perpetuate their power. Abolishing private property left people hostage to petty government officials who kept their jobs by punishing anyone who failed to kowtow to the latest dictates. As Leon Trotsky explained, "In a country where the sole employer is the State, opposition means death by slow starvation ... who does not obey shall not eat."

Regardless of Marx's intentions, his doctrines spurred perpetual dread in hundreds of millions of victims. But it was criminally naive to expect happy results from any system that bestowed boundless power on politicians. Two hundred years after Marx's birth, never forget that a philosophy that begins by idealizing government will end by idealizing subjugation.

James Bovard quite accurately and adequately pictures the truth of Socialism and its ultimate end game - Communism. Every day we see and hear Pope Francis pushing his diatribes on global Socialism, a form of Catholic Marxism, but at the end of the day, it is nothing more than a Catholic version of Communism. Take a moment and think about this: Why is it that every country where Roman Catholicism is the national religion, they are also simultaneously the poorest countries in the world. Socialism and Communism always subject the masses to tyranny!! Catholicism is not Biblical Christianity; it is a pseudo form of poverty wrapped up in a Luciferian enslavement!

When President Donald Trump did a press conference at the Southern border near McAllen, TX, on Thursday, January 10, 2019, he was stressing the point that building a wall is simply common sense. Walls work! For a matter of fact, the elite of the world build walls and security perimeters around their estates; the Vatican has a 40-ft. wall surrounding the sovereign state called the Vatican. Israel has a wall that has been effective in reducing terrorist attacks by its anti-Israel neighbors. Former President Obama has been erecting a ten-foot wall around his palatial Washington mansion. Besides that, the Washington, D.C. police had his street blocked 24/7/365 at both ends to keep the public out. Police sit at each end of the street in marked Washington Metro Police cars, and sufficient “jersey” barriers to keep out unauthorized vehicles; street signs are clearly marked “no pedestrian traffic.” This is a nonsensical issue and yet it hamstringing President Trump from protecting our borders. Reliable survey poles show that 80% of Americans recognize and want the erection of a wall to keep out drugs, criminals, and other illegals. Several California police officers have been murdered recently by illegals, or recently deported illegals, when stopped for suspected DUI violations.

To you and I, what seems as simple as common sense, is being used to delay, obstruct, impede, hold up, sabotage and hamper President Trump’s larger goal to move the country through the transition to full implementation of “GESARA.” The effort of George Soros to flood the United States with an invasion of illegals, drug smugglers and criminals, has nothing to do with people seeking a better way of life.

President Trump recently visited the Southern border at McAllen, TX. Just a week earlier, the commander of the Border Patrol stated that the various law enforcement agencies, border patrol, and customs personnel had arrested illegals from 41 countries other than those from Mexico and Central America who were attempting to enter the US illegally. The short of this is clear: the Vatican is the head of the “freedom of people to immigrate without borders;” moreover, it is using its financial arm to accomplish its purpose. The “Fiduciary” Agents for the Vatican are the Rothschild’s and its globalist lieutenants like George Soros and his Open Society all serve the same purpose by flooding a country with an invasion of poor and uneducated masses that will overwhelm and ultimately break the economic foundation of developed countries around the world, but mostly it is aiming for the United States.

America is Under Attack by 187 Groups Funded by George Soros

Notorious globalist billionaire, George Soros has gone on the record threatening to “take down President Trump” and has promised an audience at the World Economic Forum in Davos that the New World Order is making the necessary preparations to completely and utterly obliterate every single Republican plan.

Soros is doing this the only way he knows how – by throwing his dirty money around, sponsoring hate groups, protestors, and NGO’s, who are attempting to subvert the course of democracy and eradicate the silent majority.

Some of the names on this list will shock you... Abortion groups, open borders advocates, immigrant activists, groups to change the way we vote, socialist health care, climate change, “Catholics”, Socialists and Communists.

Truth & Action reports: They're all here. 187 groups being used to destroy America, thanks to funding by billionaire George Soros. Here are the groups who are using Trump's election as an excuse to take America down:

Advancement Project: This organization works to organize “communities of color” into politically cohesive units while disseminating its leftist worldviews and values as broadly as possible by way of a sophisticated communications department.

Air America Radio: Now defunct, this was a self-identified “liberal” radio network.

All of Us or None: This organization seeks to change voting laws — which vary from state to state — so as to allow ex-inmates, parolees, and even current inmates to cast their ballots in political elections.

Alliance for Justice: Best known for its activism vis a vis the appointment of federal judges, this group consistently depicts Republican judicial nominees as “extremists.”

America Coming Together: Soros played a major role in creating this group, whose purpose was to coordinate and organize pro-Democrat voter-mobilization programs.

America Votes: Soros also played a major role in creating this group, whose get-out-the-vote campaigns targeted likely Democratic voters.

America's Voice: This open-borders group seeks to promote "comprehensive" immigration reform that includes a robust agenda in favor of amnesty for illegal aliens.

American Bar Association Commission on Immigration Policy: This organization "opposes laws that require employers and persons providing education, health care, or other social services to verify citizenship or immigration status."

New World Order's Stealthy Tool of Subversion: NGO's

American Bridge 21st Century: This Super PAC conducts opposition research designed to help Democratic political candidates defeat their Republican foes.

American Civil Liberties Union: This group opposes virtually all post-9/11 national security measures enacted by the U.S. government. It supports open borders, has rushed to the defense of suspected terrorists and their abettors, and appointed former New Left terrorist Bernardine Dohrn to its Advisory Board.

American Constitution Society for Law and Policy: This Washington, DC-based think tank seeks to move American jurisprudence to the left by recruiting, indoctrinating, and mobilizing young law students, helping them acquire positions of power. It also provides leftist Democrats with a bully pulpit from which to denounce their political adversaries.

American Family Voices: This group creates and coordinates media campaigns charging Republicans with wrongdoing.

American Federation of Teachers: After longtime AFT President Albert Shanker died in 1997, he was succeeded by Sandra Feldman, who slowly "re-branded" the union, allying it with some of the most powerful left-wing elements of the New Labor Movement. When Feldman died in 2004, Edward McElroy took her place, followed by Randi Weingarten in 2008. All of them kept the union on the leftward course it had adopted in its post-Shanker period.

American Friends Service Committee: This group views the United States as the principal cause of human suffering around the world. As such, it favors America's unilateral disarmament, the dissolution of American borders, and amnesty for illegal aliens, the abolition of the death penalty, and the repeal of the Patriot Act.

American Immigration Council: This non-profit organization is a prominent member of the open-borders lobby. It advocates expanded rights and amnesty for illegal aliens residing in the U.S.

American Immigration Law Foundation: This group supports amnesty for illegal aliens, on whose behalf it litigates against the U.S. government.

American Independent News Network: This organization promotes "impact journalism" that advocates progressive change.

American Institute for Social Justice: AISJ's goal is to produce skilled community organizers who can “transform poor communities” by agitating for increased government spending on city services, drug interdiction, crime prevention, housing, public-sector jobs, access to healthcare, and public schools.

American Library Association: This group has been an outspoken critic of the Bush administration’s War on Terror — most particularly, Section 215 of the USA Patriot Act, which it calls “a present danger to the constitutional rights and privacy rights of library users.”

The American Prospect, Inc.: This corporation trains and mentors young leftwing journalists, and organizes strategy meetings for leftist leaders.

Amnesty International: This organization directs a grossly disproportionate share of its criticism for human rights violations at the United States and Israel.

Applied Research Center: Viewing the United States as a nation where “structural racism” is deeply “embedded in the fabric of society,” ARC seeks to “build a fair and equal society” by demanding “concrete change from our most powerful institutions.”

Arab American Institute Foundation: The Arab American Institute denounces the purportedly widespread civil liberties violations directed against Arab Americans in the post-9/11 period, and characterizes Israel as a brutal oppressor of the Palestinian people.

Aspen Institute: This organization promotes radical environmentalism and views America as a nation plagued by deep-seated “structural racism.”

Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now: This group conducts voter mobilization drives on behalf of leftist Democrats. These initiatives have been notoriously marred by fraud and corruption.

Ballot Initiative Strategy Center: This organization seeks to advance “a national progressive strategy” by means of ballot measures—state-level legislative proposals that pass successfully through a petition (“initiative”) process and are then voted upon by the public.

Bill of Rights Defense Committee: This group provides a detailed blueprint for activists interested in getting their local towns, cities, and even college campuses to publicly declare their opposition to the Patriot Act, and to designate themselves “Civil Liberties Safe Zones.” The organization also came to the defense of self-described radical attorney Lynne Stewart, who was convicted in 2005 of providing material support for terrorism.

Black Alliance for Just Immigration: This organization seeks to create a unified movement for “social and economic justice” centered on black racial identity.

Blueprint North Carolina: This group seeks to “influence state policy in North Carolina so that residents of the state benefit from more progressive policies such as better access to health care, higher wages, more affordable housing, a safer, cleaner environment, and access to reproductive health services.”

Brennan Center for Justice: This think tank/legal activist group generates scholarly studies, mounts media campaigns, files amicus briefs, gives pro bono support to activists, and litigates test cases in pursuit of radical “change.”

Brookings Institution: This organization has been involved with a variety of internationalist and state-sponsored programs, including one that aspires to facilitate the establishment of a U.N.-dominated world government. Brookings Fellows have also called for additional global collaboration on trade and banking; the expansion of the Kyoto Protocol; and nationalized health insurance for children. Nine Brookings economists signed a petition opposing President Bush's tax cuts in 2003.

Campaign for America's Future: This group supports tax hikes, socialized medicine, and a dramatic expansion of social welfare programs.

Campaign for Better Health Care: This organization favors a single-payer, government-run, universal health care system.

Campaign for Youth Justice: This organization contends that "transferring juveniles to the adult criminal-justice system leads to higher rates of recidivism, puts incarcerated and detained youth at unnecessary risk, has little deterrence value, and does not increase public safety."

Campus Progress: A project of the Soros-bankrolled Center for American Progress, this group seeks to "strengthen progressive voices on college and university campuses, counter the growing influence of right-wing groups on campus, and empower new generations of progressive leaders."

Casa de Maryland: This organization aggressively lobbies legislators to vote in favor of policies that promote expanded rights, including amnesty, for illegal aliens currently residing in the United States.

Catalist: This is a for-profit political consultancy that seeks "to help progressive organizations realize measurable increases in civic participation and electoral success by building and operating a robust national voter database of every voting-age American."

Catholics for Choice: This nominally Catholic organization supports women's right to abortion-on-demand.

Catholics in Alliance for the Common Good: This political nonprofit group is dedicated to generating support from the Catholic community for leftwing candidates, causes, and legislation.

Center for American Progress: This leftist think tank is headed by former Clinton chief of staff John Podesta, works closely with Hillary Clinton, and employs numerous former Clinton administration staffers. It is committed to "developing a long-term vision of a progressive America" and "providing a forum to generate new progressive ideas and policy proposals."

Center for Community Change: This group recruits and trains activists to spearhead leftist "political issue campaigns." Promoting increased funding for social welfare programs by bringing "attention to major national issues related to poverty," the Center bases its training programs on the techniques taught by the famed radical organizer Saul Alinsky.

Center for Constitutional Rights: This pro-Castro organization is a core member of the open borders lobby, has opposed virtually all post-9/11 anti-terrorism measures by the U.S. government, and alleges that American injustice provokes acts of international terrorism.

Center for Economic and Policy Research: This group opposed welfare reform, supports “living wage” laws, rejects tax cuts, and consistently lauds the professed achievements of socialist regimes, most notably Venezuela.

Center for Reproductive Rights: CRR’s mission is to guarantee safe, affordable contraception and abortion-on-demand for all women, including adolescents. The organization has filed state and federal lawsuits demanding access to taxpayer-funded abortions (through Medicaid) for low-income women.

Center for Responsible Lending: This organization was a major player in the subprime mortgage crisis. According to Phil Kerpen (vice president for policy at Americans for Prosperity), CRL “sh[ook] down and harass[ed] banks into making bad loans to unqualified borrowers.” Moreover, CRL negotiated a contract enabling it to operate as a conduit of high-risk loans to Fannie Mae.

Center on Budget and Policy Priorities: Reasoning from the premise that tax cuts generally help only the wealthy, this organization advocates greater tax expenditures on social welfare programs for low earners.

Center on Wisconsin Strategy (COWS): Aiming to redistribute wealth by way of higher taxes imposed on those whose incomes are above average, COWS contends that “it is important that state government be able to harness fair contribution from all parts of society – including corporations and the wealthy.”

Change America Now: Formed in December 2006, Change America Now describes itself as “an independent political organization created to educate citizens on the failed policies of the Republican Congress and to contrast that record of failure with the promise offered by a Democratic agenda.”

Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington: This group litigates and brings ethics charges against “government officials who sacrifice the common good to special interests” and “betray the public trust.” Almost all of its targets are Republicans.

Coalition for an International Criminal Court: This group seeks to subordinate American criminal-justice procedures to those of an international court.

Common Cause: This organization aims to bring about campaign-finance reform, pursue media reform resembling the Fairness Doctrine, and cut military budgets in favor of increased social-welfare and environmental spending.

Constitution Project: This organization seeks to challenge the legality of military commissions; end the detainment of “enemy combatants”; condemn government surveillance of terrorists; and limit the President’s executive privileges.

Defenders of Wildlife Action Fund: Defenders of Wildlife opposes oil exploration in Alaska’s Arctic National Wildlife Refuge. It condemns logging, ranching, mining, and even the use of recreational motorized vehicles as activities that are destructive to the environment.

Democracy Alliance: This self-described “liberal organization” aims to raise $200 million to develop a funding clearinghouse for leftist groups. Soros is a major donor to this group.

Democracy 21: This group is a staunch supporter of the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002, also known as the McCain-Feingold Act.

Democracy Now!: Democracy Now! was created in 1996 by WBAI radio news director Amy Goodman and four partners to provide “perspectives rarely heard in the U.S. corporate-sponsored media,” i.e., the views of radical and foreign journalists, left and labor activists, and ideological foes of capitalism.

Democratic Justice Fund: DJF opposes the Patriot Act and most efforts to restrict or regulate immigration into the United States — particularly from countries designated by the State Department as “terrorist nations.”

Democratic Party: Soros’ funding activities are devoted largely to helping the Democratic Party solidify its power base. In a November 2003 interview, Soros stated that defeating President Bush in 2004 “is the central focus of my life” ... “a matter of life and death.” He pledged to raise $75 million to defeat Bush, and personally donated nearly a third of that amount to anti-Bush organizations. “America under Bush,” he said, “is a danger to the world, and I’m willing to put my money where my mouth is.”

Demos: This organization lobbies federal and state policymakers to “addres[s] the economic insecurity and inequality that characterize American society today”; promotes “ideas for reducing gaps in wealth, income and political influence”; and favors tax hikes for the wealthy.

Drum Major Institute: This group describes itself as “a non-partisan, non-profit think tank generating the ideas that fuel the progressive movement,” with the ultimate aim of persuading “policymakers and opinion-leaders” to take steps that advance its vision of “social and economic justice.”

Earthjustice: This group seeks to place severe restrictions on how U.S. land and waterways may be used. It opposes most mining and logging initiatives, commercial fishing businesses, and the use of motorized vehicles in undeveloped areas.

Economic Policy Institute: This organization believes that “government must play an active role in protecting the economically vulnerable, ensuring equal opportunity, and improving the well-being of all Americans.”

Electronic Privacy Information Center: This organization has been a harsh critic of the USA PATRIOT Act and has joined the American Civil Liberties Union in litigating two cases calling for the FBI “to publicly release or account for thousands of pages of information about the government’s use of PATRIOT Act powers.”

Ella Baker Center for Human Rights: Co-founded by the revolutionary communist Van Jones, this anti-poverty organization claims that “decades of disinvestment in our cities” — compounded by “excessive, racist policing and over-incarceration” — have “led to despair and homelessness.”

EMILY’s List: This political network raises money for Democratic female political candidates who support unrestricted access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand.

Energy Action Coalition: Founded in 2004, this group describes itself as “a coalition of 50 youth-led environmental and social justice groups working together to build the youth clean energy and climate movement.” For EAC, this means “dismantling oppression” according to its principles of environmental justice.

Equal Justice USA: This group claims that America’s criminal-justice system is plagued by “significant race and class biases,” and thus seeks to promote major reforms.

Fair Immigration Reform Movement: This is the open-borders arm of the Center for Community Change.

Faithful America: This organization promotes the redistribution of wealth, an end to enhanced interrogation procedures vis a vis prisoners-of-war, the enactment of policies to combat global warming, and the creation of a government-run health care system.

Feminist Majority: Characterizing the United States as an inherently sexist nation, this group focuses on “advancing the legal, social and political equality of women with men, countering the backlash to women’s advancement, and recruiting and training young feminists to encourage future leadership for the feminist movement in the United States.”

Four Freedoms Fund: This organization was designed to serve as a conduit through which large foundations could fund state-based open-borders organizations more flexibly and quickly.

Free Exchange on Campus: This organization was created solely to oppose the efforts of one individual, David Horowitz, and his campaign to have universities adopt an “Academic Bill of Rights,” as well as to denounce Horowitz’s 2006 book The Professors. Member organizations of FEC include Campus Progress (a project of the Center for American Progress); the American Association of University Professors; the American Civil Liberties Union; People For the American Way; the United States Student Association; the Center for Campus Free Speech; the American Library Association; Free Press; and the National Association of State Public Interest Research Groups.

Free Press: This “media reform” organization has worked closely with many notable leftists and such organizations as Media Matters for America, Air America Radio, Global Exchange, Code Pink, Fairness and Accuracy in Reporting, the Revolutionary Communist Party, Mother Jones magazine, and Pacifica Radio.

Funding Exchange: Dedicated to the concept of philanthropy as a vehicle for social change, this organization pairs leftist donors and foundations with likeminded groups and activists who are dedicated to bringing about their own version of “progressive” change and social justice. Many of these grantees assume that American society is rife with racism, discrimination, exploitation, and inequity and needs to be overhauled via sustained education, activism, and social agitation.

Gamaliel Foundation: Modeling its tactics on those of the radical Sixties activist Saul Alinsky, this group takes a strong stand against current homeland security measures and immigration restrictions.

Gisha: Center for the Legal Protection of Freedom of Movement: This anti-Israel organization seeks to help Palestinians “exercise their right to freedom of movement.”

Global Centre for the Responsibility to Protect: This group contends that when a state proves either unable or unwilling to protect civilians from mass atrocities occurring within its borders, it is the responsibility of the international community to intervene — peacefully if possible, but with military force if necessary.

Global Exchange: Established in 1988 by pro-Castro radical Medea Benjamin, this group consistently condemns America’s foreign policy, business practices, and domestic life. Following the 9/11 terrorist attacks, Global Exchange advised Americans to examine “the root causes of resentment against the United States in the Arab world — from our dependence on Middle Eastern oil to our biased policy towards Israel.”

Grantmakers Without Borders: GWB tends to be very supportive of leftist environmental, anti-war, and civil rights groups. It is also generally hostile to capitalism, which it deems one of the chief “political, economic, and social systems” that give rise to a host of “social ills.”

Green For All: This group was created by Van Jones to lobby for federal climate, energy, and economic policy initiatives.

Health Care for America Now: This group supports a “single payer” model where the federal government would be in charge of financing and administering the entire U.S. healthcare system.

Human Rights Campaign: The largest “lesbian-gay-bisexual-transgender” lobbying group in the United States, HRC supports political candidates and legislation that will advance the LGBT agenda. Historically, HRC has most vigorously championed HIV/AIDS-related legislation, “hate crime” laws, the abrogation of the military’s “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” policy, and the legalization of gay marriage.

Human Rights First: This group supports open borders and the rights of illegal aliens; charges that the Patriot Act severely erodes Americans’ civil liberties; has filed amicus curiae briefs on behalf of terror suspect Jose Padilla; and deplores the Guantanamo Bay detention facilities.

Human Rights Watch: This group directs a disproportionate share of its criticism at the United States and Israel. It opposes the death penalty in all cases, and supports open borders and amnesty for illegal aliens.

I'lam: This anti-Israel NGO seeks “to develop and empower the Arab media and to give voice to Palestinian issues.”

Immigrant Defense Project: To advance the cause of illegal immigrants, the IDP provides immigration law backup support and counseling to New York defense attorneys and others who represent or assist immigrants in criminal justice and immigration systems, as well as to immigrants themselves.

Immigrant Legal Resource Center: This group claims to have helped gain amnesty for some three million illegal aliens in the U.S., and in the 1980s was part of the sanctuary movement which sought to grant asylum to refugees from the failed Communist states of Central America.

Immigrant Workers Citizenship Project: This open-borders organization advocates mass immigration to the U.S.

Immigration Advocates Network: This alliance of immigrant-rights groups seeks to “increase access to justice for low-income immigrants and strengthen the capacity of organizations serving them.”

Immigration Policy Center: IPC is an advocate of open borders and contends that the massive influx of illegal immigrants into America is due to U.S. government policy, since “the broken immigration system [...] spurs unauthorized immigration in the first place.”

Independent Media Center: This Internet-based, news and events bulletin board represents an invariably leftist, anti-capitalist perspective and serves as a mouthpiece for anti-globalization/anti-America themes.

Independent Media Institute: IMI administers the SPIN Project (Strategic Press Information Network), which provides leftist organizations with “accessible and affordable strategic communications consulting, training, coaching, networking opportunities and concrete tools” to help them “achieve their social justice goals.”

Institute for America’s Future: IAF supports socialized medicine, increased government funding for education, and the creation of an infrastructure “to ensure that the voice of the progressive majority is heard.”

Institute for New Economic Thinking: Seeking to create a new worldwide “economic paradigm,” this organization is staffed by numerous individuals who favor government intervention in national economies, and who view capitalism as a flawed system.

Institute for Policy Studies: This think tank has long supported Communist and anti-American causes around the world. Viewing capitalism as a breeding ground for “unrestrained greed,” IPS seeks to provide a corrective to “unrestrained markets and individualism.” Professing an unquestioning faith in the righteousness of the United Nations, it aims to bring American foreign policy under UN control.

Institute for Public Accuracy: This anti-American, anti-capitalist, anti-Israel organization sponsored actor Sean Penn's celebrated visit to Baghdad in 2002. It also sponsored visits to Iraq by Democratic Congressmen Nick Rahall and former Democrat Senator James Abourezk

Institute for Women's Policy Research: This group views the U.S. as a nation rife with discrimination against women, and publishes research to draw attention to this alleged state of affairs. It also advocates unrestricted access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand, stating that "access to abortion is essential to the economic well-being of women and girls."

International Crisis Group: One of this organization's leading figures is its Mideast Director, Robert Malley, who was President Bill Clinton's Special Assistant for Arab-Israeli Affairs. His analysis of the Mideast conflict is markedly pro-Palestinian.

J Street: This anti-Israel group warns that Israel's choice to take military action to stop Hamas' terrorist attacks "will prove counter-productive and only deepen the cycle of violence in the region"

Jewish Funds for Justice: This organization views government intervention and taxpayer funding as crucial components of enlightened social policy. It seeks to redistribute wealth from Jewish donors to low-income communities "to combat the root causes of domestic economic and social injustice." By JFJ's reckoning, chief among those root causes are the inherently negative by-products of capitalism – most notably racism and "gross economic inequality."

Joint Victory Campaign 2004: Founded by George Soros and Harold Ickes, this group was a major fundraising entity for Democrats during the 2004 election cycle. It collected contributions (including large amounts from Soros personally) and disbursed them to two other groups, America Coming Together and the Media Fund, which also worked on behalf of Democrats.

Justice at Stake: This coalition calls for judges to be appointed by nonpartisan, independent commissions in a process known as "merit selection," rather than elected by the voting public.

Latino Justice PRLDF: This organization supports bilingual education, the racial gerrymandering of voting districts, and expanded rights for illegal aliens.

Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Under Law: This group views America as an unremittingly racist nation; uses the courts to mandate race-based affirmative action preferences in business and academia; has filed briefs against the Department of Homeland Security's efforts to limit the wholesale granting of green cards and to identify potential terrorists; condemns the Patriot Act; and calls on Americans to "recognize the contribution" of illegal aliens.

League of United Latin American Citizens: This group views America as a nation plagued by "an alarming increase in xenophobia and anti-Hispanic sentiment"; favors racial preferences; supports the legalization of illegal Hispanic aliens; opposes military surveillance of U.S. borders; opposes making English America's official language; favors open borders; and rejects anti-terrorism legislation like the Patriot Act.

League of Women Voters Education Fund: The League supports taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand; supports “motor-voter” registration, which allows anyone with a driver’s license to become a voter, regardless of citizenship status; and supports tax hikes and socialized medicine.

League of Young Voters: This organization seeks to “empower[r] young people nationwide” to “participate in the democratic process and create progressive political change on the local, state and national level[s].”

Lynne Stewart Defense Committee: IRS records indicate that Soros’s Open Society Institute made a September 2002 grant of $20,000 to this organization. Stewart was the criminal-defense attorney who was later convicted for abetting her client, the “blind sheikh” Omar Abdel Rahman, in terrorist activities connected with his Islamic Group.

Machsom Watch: This organization describes itself as “a movement of Israeli women, peace activists from all sectors of Israeli society, who oppose the Israeli occupation and the denial of Palestinians’ rights to move freely in their land.”

MADRE: This international women’s organization deems America the world’s foremost violator of human rights. As such, it seeks to “communicate[e] the real-life impact of U.S. policies on women and families confronting violence, poverty and repression around the world,” and to “demand alternatives to destructive U.S. policies.” It also advocates unrestricted access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand.

Malcolm X Grassroots Movement: This group views the U.S. as a nation replete with racism and discrimination against blacks; seeks to establish an independent black nation in the southeastern United States; and demands reparations for slavery.

Massachusetts Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Coalition: This group calls for the expansion of civil rights and liberties for illegal aliens; laments that illegal aliens in America are commonly subjected to “worker exploitation”; supports tuition-assistance programs for illegal aliens attending college; and characterizes the Patriot Act as a “very troubling” assault on civil liberties.

Media Fund: Soros played a major role in creating this group, whose purpose was to conceptualize, produce, and place political ads on television, radio, print, and the Internet.

Media Matters for America: This organization is a “web-based, not-for-profit ... progressive research and information center” seeking to “systematically monitor a cross-section of print, broadcast, cable, radio, and Internet media outlets for conservative misinformation.” The group works closely with the Soros-backed Center for American Progress, and is heavily funded by Democracy Alliance, of which Soros is a major financier.

Mercy Corps: Vis a vis the Arab-Israeli conflict, Mercy Corps places all blame for Palestinian poverty and suffering directly on Israel.

Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund: This group advocates open borders, free college tuition for illegal aliens, lowered educational standards to accommodate Hispanics, and voting rights for criminals. In MALDEF’s view, supporters of making English the official language of the United States are “motivated by racism and anti-immigrant sentiments,” while advocates of sanctions against employers reliant on illegal labor seek to discriminate against “brown-skinned people.”

Meyer, Suozzi, English and Klein, PC: This influential defender of Big Labor is headed by Democrat operative Harold Ickes.

Midwest Academy: This entity trains radical activists in the tactics of direct action, targeting, confrontation, and intimidation.

Migration Policy Institute: This group seeks to create “a North America with gradually disappearing border controls ... with permanent migration remaining at moderate levels.”

Military Families Speak Out: This group ascribes the U.S. invasion of Iraq to American imperialism and lust for oil.

Missourians Organizing for Reform and Empowerment: This group is the re-branded Missouri branch of the now-defunct, pro-socialist, community organization ACORN.

MoveOn.org: This Web-based organization supports Democratic political candidates through fundraising, advertising, and get-out-the-vote drives.

Ms. Foundation for Women: This group laments what it views as the widespread and enduring flaws of American society: racism, sexism, homophobia, and the violation of civil rights and liberties. It focuses its philanthropy on groups that promote affirmative action for women, unfettered access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand, and amnesty for illegal aliens, and big government generally.

NARAL Pro-Choice America: This group supports taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand, and works to elect pro-abortion Democrats.

NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund: The NAACP supports racial preferences in employment and education, as well as the racial gerrymandering of voting districts. Underpinning its support for race preferences is the fervent belief that white racism in the United States remains an intractable, largely undiminished, phenomenon.

The Nation Institute: This nonprofit entity sponsors leftist conferences, fellowships, awards for radical activists, and journalism internships.

National Abortion Federation: This group opposes any restrictions on abortion at either the state or federal levels, and champions the introduction of unrestricted abortion into developing regions of the world.

National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty: This group was established in 1976 as the first “fully staffed national organization exclusively devoted to abolishing capital punishment.”

National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy: This group depicts the United States as a nation in need of dramatic structural change financed by philanthropic organizations. It overwhelmingly promotes grant-makers and grantees with leftist agendas, while criticizing their conservative counterparts.

National Committee for Voting Integrity: This group opposes “the implementation of proof of citizenship and photo identification requirements for eligible electors in American elections as the means of assuring election integrity.”

National Council for Research on Women: This group supports big government, high taxes, military spending cuts, increased social welfare spending, and the unrestricted right to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand.

National Council of La Raza: This group lobbies for racial preferences, bilingual education, stricter hate-crime laws, mass immigration, and amnesty for illegal aliens.

National Council of Women’s Organizations: This group views the United States as a nation rife with injustice against girls and women. It advocates high levels of spending for social welfare programs, and supports race and gender preferences for minorities and women in business and academia.

National Immigration Forum: Opposing the enforcement of present immigration laws, this organization urges the American government to “legalize” en masse all illegal aliens currently in the United States who have no criminal records, and to dramatically increase the number of visas available for those wishing to migrate to the U.S. The Forum is particularly committed to opening the borders to unskilled, low-income workers, and immediately making them eligible for welfare and social service programs.

National Immigration Law Center: This group seeks to win unrestricted access to government-funded social welfare programs for illegal aliens.

National Lawyers Guild: This group promotes open borders; seeks to weaken America’s intelligence-gathering agencies; condemns the Patriot Act as an assault on civil liberties; rejects capitalism as a nonviable economic system; has rushed to the defense of convicted terrorists and their abettors; and generally opposes all U.S. foreign policy positions, just as it did during the Cold War when it sided with the Soviets.

National Organization for Women: This group advocates the unfettered right to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand; seeks to “eradicate racism, sexism and homophobia” from American society; attacks Christianity and traditional religious values; and supports gender-based preferences for women.

National Partnership for Women and Families: This organization supports race- and sex-based preferences in employment and education. It also advocates for the universal “right” of women to undergo taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand at any stage of pregnancy and for any reason.

National Priorities Project: This group supports government-mandated redistribution of wealth — through higher taxes and greater expenditures on social welfare programs. NPP exhorts the government to redirect a significant portion of its military funding toward public education, universal health insurance, environmentalist projects, and welfare programs.

National Public Radio: Founded in 1970 with 90 public radio stations as charter members, NPR is today a loose network of more than 750 U.S. radio stations across the country, many of which are based on college and university campuses.

National Security Archive Fund: This group collects and publishes declassified documents obtained through the Freedom of Information Act to a degree that compromises American national security and the safety of intelligence agents.

National Women’s Law Center: This group supports taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand; lobbies against conservative judicial appointees; advocates increased welfare spending to help low-income mothers; and favors higher taxes for the purpose of generating more funds for such government programs as Medicaid, food stamps, welfare, foster care, health care, child-support enforcement, and student loans.

Natural Resources Defense Council: One of the most influential environmentalist lobbying groups in the United States, the Council claims a membership of one million people.

New America Foundation: This organization uses policy papers, media articles, books, and educational events to influence public opinion on such topics as healthcare, environmentalism, energy policy, the Mideast conflict, global governance, and much more.

New Israel Fund: This organization gives support to NGOs that regularly produce reports accusing Israel of human-rights violations and religious persecution.

NewsCorpWatch: A project of Media Matters For America, NewsCorpWatch was established with the help of a $1 million George Soros grant to Media Matters.

Pacifica Foundation: This entity owns and operates Pacifica Radio, awash from its birth with the socialist-Marxist rhetoric of class warfare and hatred for capitalism.

Peace and Security Funders Group: This is an association of more than 60 foundations that give money to leftist anti-war and environmentalist causes. Its members tend to depict America as the world’s chief source of international conflict, environmental destruction, and economic inequalities.

Peace Development Fund: In PDF’s calculus, the United States needs a massive overhaul of its social and economic institutions. “Recently,” explains PDF, “we have witnessed the negative effects of neo-liberalism and the globalization of capitalism, the de-industrialization of the U.S. and the growing gap between the rich and poor ...”

People for the American Way: This group opposes the Patriot Act, anti-terrorism measures generally, and the allegedly growing influence of the “religious right.”

People Improving Communities Through Organizing: This group uses Alinsky-style organizing tactics to advance the doctrines of the religious left.

Physicians for Human Rights: This group is selectively and disproportionately critical of the United States and Israel in its condemnations of human rights violations.

Physicians for Social Responsibility: This is an anti-U.S.-military organization that also embraces the tenets of radical environmentalism.

Planned Parenthood: This group is the largest abortion provider in the United States and advocates taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand.

Ploughshares Fund: This public grant making foundation opposes America’s development of a missile defense system, and contributes to many organizations that are highly critical of U.S. foreign policies and military ventures.

Prepare New York: This group supported the proposed construction of a Muslim Community Center near Ground Zero in lower Manhattan – a project known as the Cordoba Initiative, headed by Imam Feisal Abdul Rauf.

Presidential Climate Action Project: PCAP’s mission is to create a new 21st-century economy, completely carbon-free and based largely on renewable energy. A key advisor to the organization is the revolutionary communist Van Jones.

Prison Moratorium Project: This initiative was created in 1995 for the express purpose of working for the elimination of all prisons in the United States and the release of all inmates. Reasoning from the premise that incarceration is never an appropriate means of dealing with crime, it deems American society’s inherent inequities the root of all criminal behavior.

Progressive Change Campaign Committee: This organization works “to elect bold progressive candidates to federal office and to help [them] and their campaigns save money, work smarter, and win more often.”
Progressive States Network: PSN’s mission is to “pass progressive legislation in all fifty states by providing coordinated research and strategic advocacy tools to forward-thinking state legislators.”

Project Vote: This is the voter-mobilization arm of the Soros-funded ACORN. A persistent pattern of lawlessness and corruption has followed ACORN/Project Vote activities over the years.

Pro Publica: Claiming that “investigative journalism is at risk,” this group aims to remedy this lacuna in news publishing by “expos[ing] abuses of power and betrayals of the public trust by government, business, and other institutions, using the moral force of investigative journalism to spur reform through the sustained spotlighting of wrongdoing.”

Proteus Fund: This foundation directs its philanthropy toward a number of radical leftwing organizations.

Public Citizen Foundation: Public Citizen seeks increased government intervention and litigation against corporations — a practice founded on the notion that American corporations, like the capitalist system of which they are a part, are inherently inclined toward corruption.

Public Justice Center: Viewing America as a nation rife with injustice and discrimination, this organization engages in legislative and policy advocacy to promote “systemic change for the disenfranchised.”

Rebuild and Renew America Now (a.k.a. Unity '09): Spearheaded by MoveOn.org and overseen by longtime activist Heather Booth, this coalition was formed to facilitate the passage of President Obama’s “historic” $3.5 trillion budget for fiscal year 2010.

Res Publica: Seeking to advance far-left agendas in places all around the world, RP specializes in “E-advocacy,” or web-based movement-building.

Secretary of State Project: This project was launched in July 2006 as an independent “527” organization devoted to helping Democrats get elected to the office of Secretary of State in selected swing, or battleground, states.

Sentencing Project: Asserting that prison-sentencing patterns are racially discriminatory, this initiative advocates voting rights for felons.

Social Justice Leadership: This organization seeks to transform an allegedly inequitable America into a “just society” by means of “a renewed social-justice movement.”

Shadow Democratic Party: This is an elaborate network of non-profit activist groups organized by George Soros and others to mobilize resources — money, get-out-the-vote drives, campaign advertising, and policy initiatives — to elect Democratic candidates and guide the Democratic Party towards the left.

Sojourners: This evangelical Christian ministry preaches radical left-wing politics. During the 1980s it championed Communist revolution in Central America and chastised U.S. policy-makers for their tendency “to assume the very worst about their Soviet counterparts.” More recently, Sojourners has taken up the cause of environmental activism, opposed welfare reform as a “mean-spirited Republican agenda,” and mounted a defense of affirmative action.

Southern Poverty Law Center: This organization monitors the activities of what it calls “hate groups” in the United States. It exaggerates the prevalence of white racism directed against American minorities.

State Voices: This coalition helps independent local activist groups in 22 states work collaboratively on a year-round basis, so as to maximize the impact of their efforts.

Talking Transition: This was a two-week project launched in early November 2013 to “help shape the transition” to City Hall for the newly elected Democratic mayor of New York, Bill de Blasio.

Think Progress: This Internet blog “pushes back, daily,” by its own account, against its conservative targets, and seeks to transform “progressive ideas into policy through rapid response communications, legislative action, grassroots organizing and advocacy, and partnerships with other progressive leaders throughout the country and the world.”

Thunder Road Group: This political consultancy, in whose creation Soros had a hand, coordinates strategy for the Media Fund, America Coming Together, and America Votes.

U.S. Public Interest Research Group: This is an umbrella organization of student groups that support leftist agendas.

Universal Healthcare Action Network: This organization supports a single-payer health care system controlled by the federal government.

Urban Institute: This research organization favors socialized medicine, expansion of the federal welfare bureaucracy, and tax hikes for higher income-earners.

USAction Education Fund: USAction lists its priorities as: “fighting the right wing agenda”; “building grassroots political power”; winning “social, racial and economic justice for all”; supporting a system of taxpayer-funded socialized medicine; reversing “reckless tax cuts for millionaires and corporations” which shield the “wealthy” from paying their “fair share”; advocating for “pro-consumer and environmental regulation of corporate abuse”; “strengthening progressive voices on local, state and national issues”; and working to “register, educate and get out the vote ... [to] help progressives get elected at all levels of government.”

Voto Latino: This group seeks to mobilize Latin-Americans to become registered voters and political activists.

We Are America Alliance: This coalition promotes “increased civic participation by immigrants” in the American political process.

Working Families Party: An outgrowth of the socialist New Party, WFP seeks to help push the Democratic Party toward the left.

World Organization Against Torture: This coalition works closely with groups that condemn Israeli security measures against Palestinian terrorism.

YWCA World Office, Switzerland: The YWCA opposes abstinence education; supports universal access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand; and opposes school vouchers.

“Secondary” or “Indirect” Affiliates of the George Soros Network

In addition to those organizations that are funded directly by George Soros and his Open Society Institute (OSI), there are also numerous “secondary” or “indirect” affiliates of the Soros network. These include organizations which do not receive direct funding from Soros and OSI, but which are funded by one or more organizations that do. - Dr. Rich Swier

By working with the Rothschild’s and the Vatican, do you have any idea of the amount of damage Billionaire Globalist George Soros can do by and through funding 187 organizations all engaged in the battle for the heart and the human mind? Hosea 4:6 “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.” Billionaire Soros has transferred $18-billion of his $25-billion war chest to these organizations to sew discord and foment a civil war. George Soros, who built one of the world's largest fortunes through a famous series of trades, has turned over nearly $18 billion to Open Society Foundations. According to foundation officials, this is a move that transforms both the philanthropy he founded and the investment firm supplying its wealth. This occurred October 17, 2017, and we are likely to soon become aware of even newer groups being formed to serve his agenda. Soros has funded the caravans of illegals who are invading our country from Central and South America.

Since my days as a soldier in West Germany and during the Cold War era, I have been a student of history. One of my three academic majors in college was history. I have been a student of history, geo-politics, and have been a well-informed citizen for sixty years. My interest in history grew with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963. For the most part and from that date going forward, I have distrusted our government. In preparing this series, my greatest fear has been that President Trump would meet the same end result for attempting to do what President Andrew Jackson did, and which presidents Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy tried to accomplish but paid the price with their lives by trying to remove the Federal Reserve System.

Just so you recognize the seriousness and gravity of the present situation, I encourage readers to read the post on January 23, 2019 by Dave Hodges of the 'The Common Sense Show. It will be published in the following segment as well. Since his election to the office of President of the United States in 2016, there have been as many as 14 failed attempts on the life of President Donald J. Trump. Virtually all these failed attempts have been kept from the public by the mainstream media. Many of the Patriot sites on the Internet and Bloggers close to those watching the President's back have reported on the dangers and threats. If you notice recent photos of the President look as if he has gained 50-pounds under his suit coat and top coat. This is not from eating cheese burgers but from wearing bullet proof Kevlar protection. Even during the lighting of the White House Christmas tree, we saw camera footage of a red laser focused on the President's forehead during the tree lighting event.

Republicans in Congress were reportedly feeling the heat from the 24/7 "I'm a federal worker and I'm losing my house" media stories and were subsequently begging President Trump to give them a window of opportunity to strike a longer term deal with Democrats. The president wasn't immune to the pain being felt by federal workers either. He has always been and will always remain a president of the working men and women of America. After a bit of deliberation, he gave the green light for a short-term compromise. The reactions from the Democrats was of the oh-so-predictable sort as they loudly and arrogantly declared victory.

Ah, but not so fast! The president was already proving himself to be the more level-headed figure during the shutdown. Now that image has been undeniably confirmed. He was always willing to negotiate, always willing to talk and always willing to work together to do what is right for the American people.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS WHO BROKE WITH TRUMP AND VOTED AGAINST THE BORDER WALL!

As the shutdown extended to become the longest government shutdown in US history The Democrats were looking far more unwilling to come to the bargaining table, and they knew it. That's a primary reason why the media frenzy to portray suffering federal workers was escalated many times over the last 48-hours. Democrats were getting desperate. Some were openly breaking with the leadership and demanding President Trump be given his $5 billion for the wall.

But by rising above all of the petty finger-pointing, President Trump declared a three-week period of intense negotiation between both sides during which the partial government shutdown would end and federal workers could be paid, which incidentally included back pay for the 3 weeks in which the government was shutdown. Trump further promised that back pay would be issued without delay. The president did that – not the Democrats. The entire situation certainly raises serious questions concerning the Democrat agenda and their true motive with regards to their reason for stonewalling.

Here is what some in the media are nervously eyeing. (They won't report on it but the more intelligent among them know) This three-week negotiating period has forced the Democrat leadership to do what just last November they said they would never do – negotiate on border security. That negotiation will of course, include the wall. In the meantime, the Trump White House is now full steam ahead preparing for what will likely prove to be one of the most watched State of the Union addresses in history. The president has once again created a big show within which he is the undeniable master of ceremonies.

The ball remains in his court. He's just put a little more time on the clock. Keep this in mind because it is all about what happens in the next three weeks, in more ways than most realize. This is a clue to the next chapter!

President Trump has been able to expose the RINO's in the Republican camp. Those in the Senate exposed themselves by voting against the wall.

The idea that "Trump Caved" is being pushed by some (and many of those are actually liberals pretending to be disgruntled conservatives) but they are empty complaints. Just watch. Over the next week their tune is going to change dramatically and Chuck Schumer and Nancy Pelosi will be powerless to prevent or stop it.

Blessings,
